

LHSPLA MEET SANCTIONING AGREEMENT – INVITATIONAL OR TRI MEET

Updated 09/20/2024

This agreement, made the 28 day of October, 2024, by and between Doyle High School and the Louisiana High School Powerlifting Association to acknowledge the sanctioning of the following Invitational/Tri Powerlifting Meet:

Big Cat Classic to be held on Jan 11th 2025
(Meet Name) (Date)

A sanctioned invitational powerlifting meet is any powerlifting meet hosted by a member school that is contested between 3 or more member schools. Member schools hosting sanctioned invitational meets shall meet the criteria listed in Sections 1 and 2 in Article IX in the LHSPLA Constitution.

Documentation about sanctioned invitational meets must be posted on the LHSPLA website and should include the following:

- 1) The host school and venue
- 2) The date and time of the meet
- 3) Entry information including entry submission forms, meet waivers, general meet information, entry fee costs and deadline dates for entry submission.

A tri powerlifting meet is any powerlifting meet hosted by a member school that is contested between two-three member schools. Member schools hosting sanctioned dual meets must meet the criteria listed in Sections 1 and 2 of Article IX of the LHSPLA Constitution to allow them to host a tri powerlifting meet.

Documentation concerning sanctioned tri meets should be sent to the other member school involved and to the LHSPLA Executive Committee at least three weeks prior to the meet. This documentation should include:

- 1) The host school and venue
- 2) The Date and time of the meet
- 3) Entry information including entry submission forms, meet waivers, general meet information, entry fee costs and deadline dates for entry submission.

The LHSPLA will sanction the named meet listed above if the following criteria are met by the member school hosting said sanctioned invitational or tri meet:

- a) Have stated their intentions to host a sanctioned invitational meet by September 30. Sanctioned tri meets do not have to be posted on the LHSPLA Meet calendar, but, host schools must communicate the date and time of the meet with the LHSPLA Executive Committee at least three weeks before the tri meet is contested, meet the same criteria and follow the same procedures for a sanctioned invitational meet.

- b) Have paid the requisite $200.00 sanctioning fee to the LHSPLA to put an invitational meet on the lifting calendar. The sanctioning fee is due by the last Friday in October. Member schools hosting tri meets must pay the requisite $100.00 sanctioning fee at least three weeks before the tri meet is contested.
- c) Shall comply with the recommended meet set-up and clerical standards set forth in Article XII, Section 11 of the LHSPLA Constitution.
- d) Shall charge a large enough entry fee to cover the costs of paying all meet Officials. Meet officials shall be paid in a timely manner. Timely matter is defined as payment within one calendar week of the meet date. Failure by a host school to pay meet officials within one week after the completion of a sanctioned invitational meet shall result in said school being fined $250.00. The fined school will not be allowed to host another sanctioned invitational meet until the fine is paid in full to the LHSPLA. (Section 5 of Article IX, LHSPLA Constitution)
- e) Shall provide that the invitational/tri meet site will serve as a certification venue for new officials.
- f) Shall submit the following documentation no later than the last Friday in October to the LHSPLA Secretary: Meet Information Packet, Certificate of Liability Insurance naming the LHSPLA as the certificate holder, and LHSPLA Rack Rental Agreement (if applicable). In addition, all documentation required to pay officials as per individual Local Educational Agency.
- g) Shall forward the results of said invitational/tri meet to the Secretary of the association for distribution to the membership by the Monday following the meet. A fine of $1 per lifter will be assessed for late results.
- h) Any member school(s) that chooses to host or participate in a non-sanctioned invitational or tri meet shall be fined $500.00. Members schools affected will not be allowed to participate at the Regional Level until the fine is paid in full.
